

Pancake Day

The children had some lovely sensory experiences to mark Pancake Day. We explored lemons, taste, smell etc, squeezing out the juice to mix with flour and sugar to create different textures. We used frying pans to practice tossing playdough pancakes and counting and matching numerals.

